In the Name of the Almighty

The Supreme Leader His Excellency Ayatollah Khamenei (May his lengthy shadow lengthen)

Peace be upon you

Thanks to the great and compassionate God, who has led the honorable Iranian people to achieve remarkable victories in their Islamic movement, from its beginning to the present day. And over the course of the last thirty years, any time the sinister enemies of Islam and Muslims tried to ignite fires or damage this Revolution, He has rendered them unsuccessful and ignominious.

The recent elections were another illustration of divine beneficence, in which, despite the passing of three decades since the victory of the Islamic Revolution, our greatly dignified people cast their 40 million votes with an unprecedented presence at the voting ballot boxes, echoing the voice of their dear Leader and confounding everyone.

Praise be to God, the awareness of this vigilant people and the invigorating and enemy-breaking speeches of the dear Supreme Leader in the Friday Prayers, in the presence of millions of praying Muslims, which lifted everyone's spirits and instilled calm and tranquility in the public's hearts, extinguished the seditions and neutralized the conspiracies, and illuminated the role of the Supreme Leader in the protection of the Revolution and in supporting of the honorable Iranian people.

In accordance with my duty under Shari'eh and my religious obligations, I have expressed my extensive thanks and appreciation for Your Excellency and for this Islamic and Shiite nation. I consider it my duty also to express my appreciation for the omnipotent and almighty God for this great blessing. I also pray for the highest blessings for the dear Imam [Khomeini], and a long life, dignity, and health for His Excellency's successor.

The Guardian Council, in accordance with the advice of His Excellency and the Council's own legal duty, is completely prepared to address in detail the complaints it has received and announce the results of its investigation. I hope that the ultimate results will satisfy the almighty God, the Supreme Leader, and the dignified Iranian people.

God willing, it will happen,

Ahmad Jannati

Chairman of the Guardian Council
